

Reject the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking #02-230, which would limit the functionality of digital television sets.
How greedy can an industry get? People have been able to reord programs for years with no perceptable harm to anybody.

I percieve a danger to the free dissemination of information of all types in this misguided attempt at control. If we did not need it for analog, we don\'t need it for digital.